Jason and Brenda

Hello!

We are Brenda and Jason; we would like to thank you for taking the time to consider us as potential adoptive parents to your child. We can't possibly imagine what you might be feeling or what you are going through. Please try to find comfort in knowing that we will support you and your child in any way we can. We would like you to know we truly appreciate you and you are stronger than you may realize. We have been praying to grow our family and are very excited to become parents to share our love, life, and experiences with your child. As children of God, we are all family, but it is you who has given life to this child and for that, we are truly grateful.

Brenda and Jason

Our Story...

Brenda grew up in Rhode Island, and Jason is from a small town in Massachusetts. Our journey together has been filled with love, laughter, and adventure. We first met in 2014 when a mutual friend introduced us; both of us happened to need a date for his wedding! At the time, we lived in different parts of New England, so our relationship began long distance. That made every weekend we spent together all the more meaningful.

We planned to marry in April 2020, but like many couples, COVID had other plans. After several changes to our date, venue, and guest list, we finally said "I do" in July of that same year. It was the perfect celebration of resilience, love, and the start of our next chapter together.

Why We Choose Adoption...

We decided to adopt because we have a lot of love to give and desire to grow our family. I, (Brenda) shared a very special relationship with my grandma and I was very close to her, because of this special bond I always prayed that I would one day be blessed with at least one child that I could share the same or similar relationship with. We are both one of three children and before getting married, we decided we wanted to have at least two children.

After experiencing challenges with infertility, it has become clear that God has other plans for our family. We believe that everything happens for a reason and adoption is our chosen path. Through adoption, we will be able to share joy and family togetherness and fulfill the desire for this child to be able to have and experience all of the wonderful things life has to offer.

All about Brenda...

Brenda grew up in Rhode Island and has always loved being outdoors. She's an avid gardener who adores daisies and wildflowers, and her favorite seasons are spring and summer. Whether she's barefoot in the grass or walking along the sand at the beach, she feels happiest surrounded by nature.

Brenda has a huge heart for animals and adores her two cats, Cher and Specks. She takes her role as a "fur mama" seriously and can't wait to become a mom herself. Brenda looks forward to raising a child in a home filled with love, laughter, creativity, and joy.

Brenda's favorite things...

- Expressing creativeness through baking
- Decorating inside and out of our home for every holiday and season - favorite holiday is Halloween
- Bargain hunting
- The color purple and leopard print
- "Titanium" by David Guetta
- The movies Hocus Pocus and Practical Magic
- Favorite food is marinated, grilled chicken paired with cucumber salad made with our home grown cucumbers.
- Holiday themed coffee mugs
- Dressing up for Halloween

All about Jason...

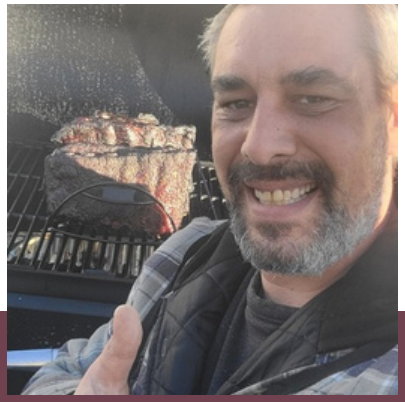

Jason grew up in the small historic town of Kingston, Massachusetts, on Plymouth Bay. An Eagle Scout and graduate of Norwich University with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, Jason was active in the Corps of Cadets, Naval ROTC, and the varsity rifle team.

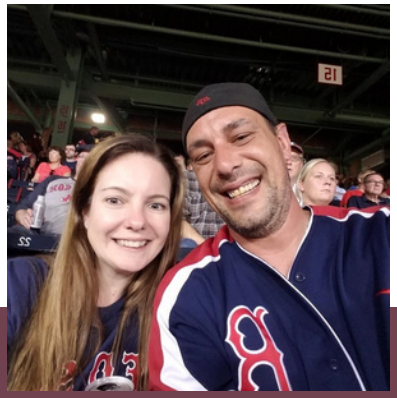

He now works as a Manufacturing Engineer for a high-tech company that builds unmanned underwater vehicles. Known as a true "Jack of all trades," Jason can fix or build just about anything and enjoys tackling home projects.

Jason is loving, steady, and optimistic, with a great sense of humor and a big heart.

Jason's favorite things...

- Boston Bruins, Red Sox, New England Patriots and Revolution, Boston Celtics - grow a "playoff beard" each season, creating my fun tradition of "Summer Jay" (clean-shaven) and "Winter Jay" (full mountain-man mode) to cheer on my teams.
- Hunting, fishing, hiking and snowboarding
- Building with Legos – I've loved Legos since childhood, building towers, vehicles, and models with my brothers. Today I like to build Star Wars and motorsports-themed car sets
- Barbecuing and smoking meats
- "Dream On" by Aerosmith
- The color green
- Thanksgiving
- Favorite foods are seafood and smoked BBQ

Meet our Cats...

Our two cats, Cher and Specks, mean the world to us. Cher came from a rough situation but has blossomed into a loving, loyal companion who curls up in Brenda's lap every morning while she enjoys her coffee.

Specks is our chatty greeter — always meowing his "stories," and greeting us at the door when we get home. They've been with us for six wonderful years, and we can't imagine life without them! They can't wait to have a human sibling, this will make life "purr-fect".

Our home and community...

We live in historic Rhode Island in a cozy three-bedroom, one-bath, home. Just off our kitchen, a side deck leads to our spacious, fenced-in backyard, complete with a vegetable garden and a few flower beds.

Our neighborhood is quiet and wonderfully diverse, with a mix of cultures and ages. Within just a few blocks, we have close friends and family, as well as an elementary school. There are plenty of playgrounds, and our church is conveniently nearby. We also enjoy easy access to great local amenities — including a supermarket, two pharmacies, and a favorite coffee shop right along the bike path.

Holidays at our Home...

We love celebrating the holidays and creating a warm, welcoming home filled with joy and laughter. Brenda delights in decorating for each season, baking festive treats, and making every moment feel magical.

Jason puts his BBQ skills to good use — especially when he cooks the Easter ham each year! We love hosting gatherings, filling our home with family, good food, and holiday cheer. We can't wait to share these special traditions and create new ones with a child someday.

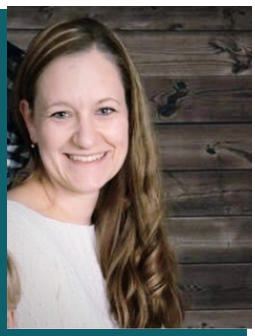

From our family and friends...

I'm Brenda's younger brother. I aim to be an engaged uncle, offering both mentorship and fun to my future niece or nephew. Brenda and Jay's caring nature and strong relationship assure me they'll excel as parents. Brenda's support during a challenging period in my life was invaluable, showcasing her reliability and trustworthiness. Jay's kindness, like fixing a trellis for my mom, reflects his readiness to help and go the extra mile. Their commitment to their cat Cher and her kittens showcase their nurturing qualities. They even adopted one of the kittens themselves, demonstrating their dedication to family. Their love for their fur babies reflects their potential as loving parents. I have full confidence in their ability to create a nurturing and supportive environment for their future child. - Allen

I have known Brenda for 25 years and we are best friends. I have known Jay for 9 years. Brenda is well grounded, kind and caring. She would give you the shirt off her back and Jay is similar and matches Brenda. He is always kind, respectful and thoughtful. I know they will be great parents after seeing how they treat my kids. I have a son, Landon, with autism and they have watched him several times and not once have I ever worried about how they would react to his behaviors. They have never treated him differently and continue to treat him like their own. I would play an important role in this child's life as his or her god parent. I would be a role model, a shoulder to cry on, a trusted adult figure who will guide them to grow and thrive to be a remarkable human being. -Katie

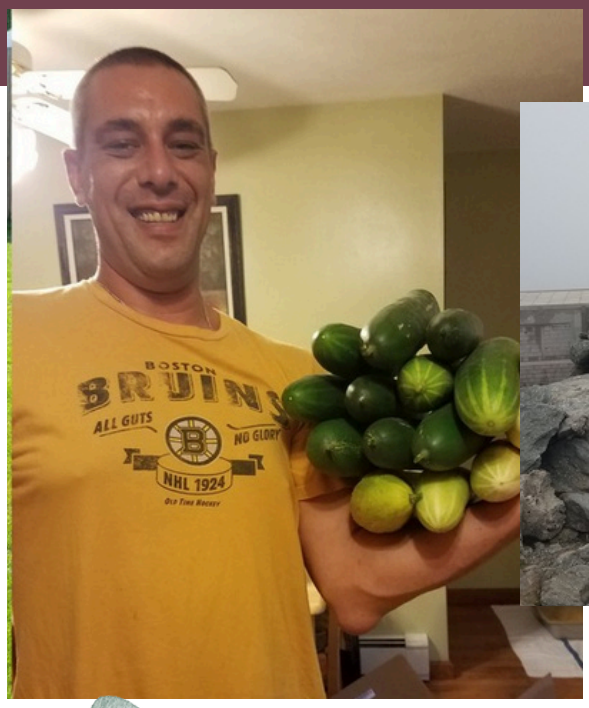

My name is Joseph and my wife, Nadene, and I were married for 48 years before she passed away in June of 2022. Jason is my eldest son, and Brenda is my daughter-in-law. I will be known to the child as "Papa" and will bestow my 70+ years of knowledge and skills upon him or her. Jason and Brenda are both devoted to their families, very loving and caring. Jason was very active in Boy Scouts where he attained the rank of Eagle Scout and developed excellent leadership talents. He is a great teacher, patient and has a very deep skill set. Family get togethers are always entertaining especially with the nephews and games. Jason and Brenda are great with their nephews; playing video games, building Legos and offering challenges like seeing who can make the highest tower, build the longest or biggest or fastest vehicles. I love the way Brenda and Jason not only share their love but the household chores too! - Joseph

They have many strengths but most important would be unity, dedication to each other, and what they want. They are driven and both are very supportive of one another. They are very loving, supportive, consistent and involved. They would express their love and affection consistently and communicate effectively as a team. They would set limits, teach responsibility, be great role models, provide new experiences and manage stress well.

I would play the role of an aunt, as well as be a friend, mentor, sounding board. I would share activities and those would vary widely and evolve as the child grew up. I hope to be playful, supportive, loving and nurturing. -Alissa
